The A12 NEWS

ANIMAL HOSPITAL

HOLIDAY LOANS AVAILABLE NOW

$850 to $2,500!

Come and visit our friendly staff today...
or you may also apply online at

www.nfcmoney.com

For more information on CCCC, visit www.cccc.edu.

Candy Cane Story

JESUS

History of everyone’s favorite Christmas Candy

The story of the Indiana candy cane story has been widely circulated and retold, while other stories suggest the candy cane was created long ago. It is important to remember that the word “Christmas” should be spelled with the “X” for the name of Jesus and the stars of the Christmas tree. The story is quite simple. In the 15th century, a young man lived in the late 17th century who after most of Europe had become Christian, and well before Indiana became a state or candy canes came to America. Also, historical records from various parts of the world show the canes were all-white until the early 1900s. But for those who believe, candy canes are still a wonderful Christian symbol, and a reminder of the true meaning of Christmas.

This is one version of the Christian candy cane story.

A candymaker in Indiana wanted to make a candy to symbolize the virgin birth and the purity of Jesus. He then shaped it in the form of a “T” to represent the name of Jesus and the stars of the Christmas tree. Finally, he added red stripes to symbolize Jesus’ blood and suffering on the cross. The candymakers hoped that each time someone ate his creation, they would be reminded of Jesus and the great love God gave us at Christmas.

For more information on CCCC, visit www.cccc.edu.

HOLIDAY LOANS AVAILABLE NOW

$850 to $2,500!

Come and visit our friendly staff today...
or you may also apply online at

www.nfcmoney.com

For more information on CCCC, visit www.cccc.edu.

Candy Cane Story

JESUS

History of everyone’s favorite Christmas Candy

The story of the Indiana candy cane story has been widely circulated and retold, while other stories suggest the candy cane was created long ago. It is important to remember that the word “Christmas” should be spelled with the “X” for the name of Jesus and the stars of the Christmas tree. The story is quite simple. In the 15th century, a young man lived in the late 17th century who after most of Europe had become Christian, and well before Indiana became a state or candy canes came to America. Also, historical records from various parts of the world show the canes were all-white until the early 1900s. But for those who believe, candy canes are still a wonderful Christian symbol, and a reminder of the true meaning of Christmas.

This is one version of the Christian candy cane story.

A candymaker in Indiana wanted to make a candy to symbolize the virgin birth and the purity of Jesus. He then shaped it in the form of a “T” to represent the name of Jesus and the stars of the Christmas tree. Finally, he added red stripes to symbolize Jesus’ blood and suffering on the cross. The candymakers hoped that each time someone ate his creation, they would be reminded of Jesus and the great love God gave us at Christmas.

For more information on CCCC, visit www.cccc.edu.

HOLIDAY LOANS AVAILABLE NOW

$850 to $2,500!

Come and visit our friendly staff today...
or you may also apply online at

www.nfcmoney.com

For more information on CCCC, visit www.cccc.edu.

Candy Cane Story

JESUS

History of everyone’s favorite Christmas Candy

The story of the Indiana candy cane story has been widely circulated and retold, while other stories suggest the candy cane was created long ago. It is important to remember that the word “Christmas” should be spelled with the “X” for the name of Jesus and the stars of the Christmas tree. The story is quite simple. In the 15th century, a young man lived in the late 17th century who after most of Europe had become Christian, and well before Indiana became a state or candy canes came to America. Also, historical records from various parts of the world show the canes were all-white until the early 1900s. But for those who believe, candy canes are still a wonderful Christian symbol, and a reminder of the true meaning of Christmas.

This is one version of the Christian candy cane story.

A candymaker in Indiana wanted to make a candy to symbolize the virgin birth and the purity of Jesus. He then shaped it in the form of a “T” to represent the name of Jesus and the stars of the Christmas tree. Finally, he added red stripes to symbolize Jesus’ blood and suffering on the cross. The candymakers hoped that each time someone ate his creation, they would be reminded of Jesus and the great love God gave us at Christmas.

For more information on CCCC, visit www.cccc.edu.

HOLIDAY LOANS AVAILABLE NOW

$850 to $2,500!

Come and visit our friendly staff today...
or you may also apply online at

www.nfcmoney.com

For more information on CCCC, visit www.cccc.edu.

Candy Cane Story

JESUS

History of everyone’s favorite Christmas Candy

The story of the Indiana candy cane story has been widely circulated and retold, while other stories suggest the candy cane was created long ago. It is important to remember that the word “Christmas” should be spelled with the “X” for the name of Jesus and the stars of the Christmas tree. The story is quite simple. In the 15th century, a young man lived in the late 17th century who after most of Europe had become Christian, and well before Indiana became a state or candy canes came to America. Also, historical records from various parts of the world show the canes were all-white until the early 1900s. But for those who believe, candy canes are still a wonderful Christian symbol, and a reminder of the true meaning of Christmas.

This is one version of the Christian candy cane story.

A candymaker in Indiana wanted to make a candy to symbolize the virgin birth and the purity of Jesus. He then shaped it in the form of a “T” to represent the name of Jesus and the stars of the Christmas tree. Finally, he added red stripes to symbolize Jesus’ blood and suffering on the cross. The candymakers hoped that each time someone ate his creation, they would be reminded of Jesus and the great love God gave us at Christmas.

For more information on CCCC, visit www.cccc.edu.

HOLIDAY LOANS AVAILABLE NOW

$850 to $2,500!

Come and visit our friendly staff today...
or you may also apply online at

www.nfcmoney.com

For more information on CCCC, visit www.cccc.edu.

Candy Cane Story

JESUS

History of everyone’s favorite Christmas Candy

The story of the Indiana candy cane story has been widely circulated and retold, while other stories suggest the candy cane was created long ago. It is important to remember that the word “Christmas” should be spelled with the “X” for the name of Jesus and the stars of the Christmas tree. The story is quite simple. In the 15th century, a young man lived in the late 17th century who after most of Europe had become Christian, and well before Indiana became a state or candy canes came to America. Also, historical records from various parts of the world show the canes were all-white until the early 1900s. But for those who believe, candy canes are still a wonderful Christian symbol, and a reminder of the true meaning of Christmas.

This is one version of the Christian candy cane story.

A candymaker in Indiana wanted to make a candy to symbolize the virgin birth and the purity of Jesus. He then shaped it in the form of a “T” to represent the name of Jesus and the stars of the Christmas tree. Finally, he added red stripes to symbolize Jesus’ blood and suffering on the cross. The candymakers hoped that each time someone ate his creation, they would be reminded of Jesus and the great love God gave us at Christmas.

For more information on CCCC, visit www.cccc.edu.

HOLIDAY LOANS AVAILABLE NOW

$850 to $2,500!

Come and visit our friendly staff today...
or you may also apply online at

www.nfcmoney.com

For more information on CCCC, visit www.cccc.edu.