Request Your Guest Speaker for:

NORTH CAROLINA APRIL 21-28, 2018

NCCEE has partnered with financial institutions to bring guest speakers directly to teachers and students in classrooms throughout North Carolina during the weekdays of April 23-27. Volunteers from State Farm and Wells Fargo will provide presentations for your students throughout the state. We will make every effort to fulfill your request on your preferred date and time. The deadline for requests is March 23. Register today.

Thank you to our guest speaker partners.

State Farm

If you plan to be in the Charlotte area on April 21, join NCCEE and our Money Smart Week partners as we help to kick off #MSW2018 at Imaginon. Events will begin at 10:30 a.m. with a money-themed story time (attending children will receive free books) and will continue with interactive tables throughout the venue to help you learn Money Smart tips with concurrent money smart presentations through 1:00 p.m. We hope to see you there!

Spring 2018 Session Is Underway

Students from grades 4-12, as well as higher ed students, may participate in this stock market simulation provided by the SIFMA Foundation.

Students learn personal finance concepts including the importance of saving and investing early in life; improve their math skills; and learn how our market economy operates. Participation scholarships are made possible by our financial education partners listed below. Register today!

The North Carolina Personal Finance Challenge is a competition where students compete in teams to demonstrate their knowledge of personal finance concepts. The initial round is web-based and can be completed from your school's location. There is no cost to participate in the challenge and will serve as a good learning experience.

- High School Students

- Compete in teams of 4 via the preliminary web-based competition through March 30 end of day.
- Top scoring 8 teams will be invited to compete at the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, Charlotte Branch on April 20.
- State Champions will compete in Kansas in May.

- Middle School Students

- Compete in teams of four via the web-based competition portal through March 30 end of day.
- Top 3 scoring teams will be recognized at one of NCCEE's Annual Awards Banquets in Greenville or Charlotte, depending on the school's location.
