Dear Sandy Wheat,

Thank you for presenting at the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction's Academic Standards Division's 2022 K-12 Social Studies Leaders' Institute. Your professional expertise and leadership contributed to two outstanding days of professional growth for social studies leaders across the state. Your willingness to share your knowledge and insight played an important role in making our Institute a success. Your presentation was not only extremely informative, but also engaging for our participants. Each participant was able to take away important lessons.

We appreciate you for taking time out of your busy schedule to provide us with such high-quality and valuable information. There is so much more to learn from your wisdom and experience, and we look forward to connecting with you again. Someone once said that "Quality is never an accident. It is always the result of intelligent effort." Your participation in our event helped ensure a quality experience for our participants. Thank you, again.

Warmest Regards,
